DOCKET NO. 2007-229-E

Secretary of the Navy
Petition for Intervention

WHEREAS, The Department of the Navy petitions to intervene in the above-referenced proceeding, on behalf of the Navy and all Federal Executive Agencies;

And WHEREAS, as a significant customer of electricity in South Carolina, the Federal Executive Agencies have an interest in participating in this docket. Accordingly, the Navy requests an opportunity to intervene in the above-referenced docket.

And WHEREAS, the Navy desires to participate fully in this matter, including but not limited to the right to submit comments, receive copies of the pleadings of other participants, receive copies of discovery and discovery responses filed by the other participants, and, if appropriate, submit reply comments and testimony, and cross-examine witnesses at any hearings that are scheduled in this matter;

WHEREFORE, for the reasons set forth above, the Navy respectfully requests that the Commission permit it to intervene in this proceeding and be made a party for all purposes.

Communications and correspondence concerning this Petition to Intervene should be directed to:
